with our blend of best practice advice and leading edge tools you can unleash the talent and skill within your business, helping your people develop new ways of thinking about us

We believe that a clear leadership model is key to ensuring your top people can articulate your vision, live your values and achieve their goals. Whether you are growing or are already a major player – every business needs leaders as well as good managers.

We are a small team of specialist consultants with big ideas. Our client base extends across the UK and Europe covering a variety of sectors. You'll find us responsive, effective, innovative and creative. Above all we really listen to our clients and deliver programmes to meet their needs.

leading edge tools

We hold the UK licence for one of the best development and evaluation programmes in the world – the Full Range Leadership Model.

Designed in the United States and successfully delivered across the world, we're really excited to be able to offer this programme to our clients.

The programme covers all leadership styles and develops the type of leaders you need in your organisation.

a complete view

Providing senior people with detailed feedback and coaching is essential when you're focused on transforming your organisation.

Using probably the most validated and researched leadership instrument in the world today – the Multifactor Leadership Questionnaire – we can help you implement an objective, comprehensive 360° feedback programme.

The detail and insight people gain from our approach is far greater than many similar products used by larger consultancies.

our clients agree – they've seen the benefits

“This has given me clear insight into my leadership style. I now know how I can add greater value to my company. I feel really inspired.”

“This is a really powerful process. It's helped me identify my strengths and weaknesses and given me a clear plan for future development.”

“There were some surprises and the detail was more in-depth than I expected. It was good to get constructive feedback.”
